A little bit about the talent in our festival:

* New Morning Songwriters Series

<https://www.facebook.com/New-Morning-Songwriters-Series-646830222015201/> featuring local and touring talent for 7 years at New Morning Market in Woodbury, CT. We are excited to have two of the founding members as part of the trio of singers/songwriters joining us for this virtual event:
Doug Mahard
Mitch Katz
George Mallas

* Fred Astaire Dance Studio of Southbury

<https://www.facebook.com/fadssouthbury>
The Fred Astaire Dance Studio of Southbury opened their doors in December of 2011 and created an elegant, friendly, no pressure environment in which students can learn great dance from world class instructors. Their most important priorities are that students have fun while they improve their dance skills. Joining us to teach the Tango and Salsa are professional dancers and instructors
Ivana Strancaric
Vladimir Serbulenco

* Arts Escape, Inc. <https://www.artsescape.org/>

Enriching and serving communities in the arts. Arts Escape programming has gone virtual, as is the case with so much of our lives since the pandemic, and still offering a wide variety of programs for writers, artists, art lovers, musicians, and creating a range of great content for the first fully virtual Southbury Arts Festival:

* So You Want to Write? with writing Instructor Nancy McMillan. If you want to write but are not sure how to begin, come to this class to be guided through prompts and exercises in a supportive environment.

* Featured readers:

Sandie Daignault
Ann Grilli
Barbara McKay
Nancy McMillan
Vivian Michaels
Carmina Palarino
Tina Tocco

* Two Virtual Art Exhibits with teacher and student art work:

Two stunning collections, each artist and their medium(s) noted in each of the virtual art exhibits. A virtual feast for the eyes, the spirit, and the heart.

* Heritage Village Theatre Guild & Friends

When the world gives you lemons, make lemonade. Restricted in 2020 by the pandemic, Neil Cowan, artistic and theatrical director and actor, made lemonade and produced a virtual theatrical production called "Flying Solo" on Zoom to rave reviews. We are thrilled to have the recorded production added to our festival roster.

The product includes writers and actors:

Judy Cowan
Carol Bates
Terry McDonald
Neil Cowan
Faith Vicinanza
Sarah Duva
Elizabeth Thomas

- A short interlude 😊 (see next page for more)
  - Please note that we will be streaming on three channels.
  - If you cannot access Zoom, we have provided a youtube channel where you can stream content on your smart TV, smart phone, iPad, etc.
  - All content is either being recorded that day or previously recorded and will be made available on our youtube channel to enjoy again and again after the festival
  - If you have any question, feel free to contact us at southburyartsfestival@gmail.com

MY MILLIONAIRE is an original musical comedy based on Mark Twain's short story The Million Pound Bank Note with music by Barbara Reis, book and lyrics by Nancy Tobin. Set in London in the late 1890's, Roger and Sidney Willoughby, two aristocratic English brothers, lend a million-pound note to Henry Adams, a penniless, friendless but honest stranger to see what will happen to him in the ensuing month. Roger wagers he will thrive, attain high position, amass great wealth and win the hand of a beautiful lady while Sidney bets he will starve. All is revealed in this light-hearted send-up of credit, class, and even love.

In this Zoom reading of the work, ten actors read twenty-four parts:

Floyd Higgins - Narrator, Roger Willoughby, Percy

Ron Dukenski – Henry Adams

Karen Lampiasi – Portia Langham, Elsie

Clint MacGowan – Sidney Willoughby, Augie, Chester

Judy Cowan - Mrs. Worth

Neil Cowan – Scrunge, George St. George, Lloyd Hastings

Elaine Reidy - Mrs. Barlow, Jane

Jack Lampiasi - Ambassador Worth, Jack

Nancy Trew- Kitty, Peg

Jim Pine – Captain, Archie, Pomfret, Tod, Butler
